AIR—"America"

Alma mater, to-day Thy children come to pay Homage to thee. However far they roam, Love for their old school home Bids all thy children gladly come Once more to thee.	We stand within thy walls, Each one the past recalls, Bright days now fled. "Though some were "April days," These but brought out the rays That ever were around our ways By Heaven shed.
---	--

Prosperity and peace
Be thine, and never cease
As years go by,
And may thy children be,
With loving loyalty,
Ever steadfast and true to thee,
Loved C. M. I.
